

Seizure Support Foundation Individual Partnership Policy

Purpose: The purpose of the individual partnership policy is to outline the principles and guidelines for establishing and maintaining partnerships between the Seizure Support Foundation and individual supporters to advance the foundation's mission.

Types of Individual Partnerships: The foundation may establish different types of individual partnerships, including but not limited to donors, volunteers, advocates, and ambassadors. Each type of partnership may have its own specific guidelines and requirements.

Alignment with Mission: Individual partners should share the values and goals of the Seizure Support Foundation, and their support should be consistent with the foundation's mission, vision, and priorities.

Financial Contributions: Individual partners may provide financial contributions to the foundation, either as one-time donations, monthly contributions, or other forms of giving. The foundation will provide clear guidelines on how donations are accepted, processed, and acknowledged, and will comply with all applicable laws and regulations related to fundraising and donor privacy.

Volunteering and Advocacy: Individual partners may also provide volunteer services or engage in advocacy efforts on behalf of the foundation. The foundation will provide guidelines on how individuals can get involved as volunteers, including any required training, screening, and supervision. The foundation may also provide resources and guidance on how individual partners can advocate for the foundation's mission and raise awareness about neurological disorders and learning disabilities.

Recognition and Stewardship: The foundation may provide appropriate recognition and stewardship to its individual partners, including acknowledgment of their support in its communications, events, and publications. The foundation will follow its recognition policies and guidelines in a fair and consistent manner, ensuring that individual partners are acknowledged in a manner that respects their privacy preferences.

Ethical Standards: The foundation and its individual partners will adhere to high ethical standards in all aspects of the partnership, including fundraising, volunteering, and advocacy. Both parties will comply with all applicable laws and regulations, and any potential conflicts of interest will be disclosed and addressed in accordance with the foundation's conflict of interest policy and applicable laws.

Privacy and Data Security: The foundation will handle individual partners' personal information with care and respect their privacy preferences. The foundation will comply with all applicable data protection laws and regulations and will use individual partners' information only for the purposes for which it was collected.

Termination of Partnerships: The foundation and individual partners have the right to terminate the partnership at any time, with or without cause, by providing written notice to the other party.

Review and Revision: The individual partnership policy will be reviewed periodically and may be revised as needed to ensure its effectiveness and alignment with the foundation's goals and objectives.

Governance: The foundation's board of directors and staff will provide oversight of the individual partnership policy and its implementation, and will ensure that all partnerships are consistent with the foundation's mission and strategic objectives
